

Rob was called into ministry at the age of 16 – like Jacob in the Old Testament, he was wrestling with God about which way to go with his life – before the night was over, God had won and Rob knew he would never be the same!

Topics Your Audience Cares About

TRENDING

- How Comparison Culture is Leading Us From Our Ultimate Calling
- How Covid-19 Can Affect Everything Christians Take For Granted About Attending Church

GENERATIONAL

- Why Millennials Are Skipping Church – And How To Get Them to Come Back

RELATIONSHIPS

- How to Grow and Maintain Relational Intelligence

SEXY

- Swipe Right. Swipe Left–How to Apply God's Teaching to Modern Dating

POLITICAL

- How Jesus Provides Great Insight to Help Tackle Tough Subjects Like Race and Politics

BUSINESS

- I Am More Than a Deal – How Religion and Business Can Learn From Each Other

SCAMS

- Taking The Lord's Name in Gain – Spotting Religious Affinity Scams 101

A Brief Bio on Pastor Rob

SUMMARY

- Lead Pastor of The Summit Church
- Husband and Father of 2
- Based in Denver, Colorado
- Pastored a Megachurch with Multi-Site Campuses

Pastor Rob Singleton has spent much of his life planting churches, with the vision of helping rescue the lost, raising them up in Christ, and releasing them into the community to fulfill the great Commission and Great Commandment. Today, he is the Lead Pastor of The Summit Church, a wonderful and vibrant community in the heart of America's ski country, Centennial Colorado. Through online streaming, podcasts, and special events, Pastor Rob has helped grow The Summit Church into a ministry with national reach. He holds a Master of Theology from Dallas Theological Seminary, and lives in Denver with his wife, Michelle, and 2 awesome kids, Nathan and Juliana.

